

2ND ANNUAL “AN EVENING WITH WRITERS”

WHO: California Writers Club, Sacramento Branch

WHAT: 2nd Annual “An Evening With Writers”

Author and poet Frances Kakugawa and authors A.K. Buckroth, Amy Rogers, Carol Ryan, and Margie Yee Webb will read from their works, be available to autograph books, and share their experiences, writings, and writing advice.

WHEN: Tuesday evening, October 4, 2011 – 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

WHERE: Luna’s Café & Juice Bar, 1414 16th Street, Sacramento, CA

WHY: To commemorate California Writers Week, which is the 3rd week in October, and to celebrate the 86th anniversary of the California Writers Club, Sacramento Branch. It was in October of 1925 that the branch was created to make resources available to writers at all levels of expertise and to assist writers throughout the Sacramento region to hone their skills and to achieve their writing goals. CWC continues to serve as a major resource for writers.

The public is invited to this FREE event. Food and beverages are available for sale.
