

SOULFUL NEEDS

A veil is lifted
The path clearly visible
An epiphany of sorts
Circumstances allowing for the revelation

Knowing leads to action commitment follows
Enthusiasm unquenchable for a while
Excited to make a difference
Motivation is strong compensation unnecessary

Accepted by a community
Expectations mount with participation
Time is taxed the light begins to dim
Accountable guilt stirs behind my eyes

Competing priorities rise again
Relevance to who I am questioned
Searching for a way out
Almost an obsession

Returning to my comfort zone
Based on soulful needs within
Balance found only with continual motion
At the fulcrum of my life
